GIRLS BASKETBALL

Nov. 13, 2018

PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Week 2: Kailyn Graham, Pendleton Heights

Graham had a consistent week for the Arabians, with 14 points in each of PH's two conference wins, helping the team start 2-0 in league play.

Week 1: Lexi Shelton, Mt. Vernon

Shelton averaged 16.5 points and 7 rebounds in two Marauder contests, a win over Franklin and a loss to 4A champ Warren Central. She tallied 22 against WC.

NEWS AND NOTES

- Pendleton Heights' Aubree Dwiggs had a big game in the Arabians' Saturday victory over Yorktown, tallying 20 points on 9-14 shooting and six rebounds. PH won 49-45 despite a 9-2 Yorktown rally in the final quarter. Elizabeth Reece and Lea Alexander scored 14 each for Yorktown.
- PH started conference play with a 63-61 OT win Tuesday over New Castle. The Arabians had four players in double figures, led by Megan Mills' 17 points. Graham had 14, Kylie Davis 13 and Niyah Loomis 10. Davis also had eight boards. Cameron Tabor had 24 points and 13 rebounds for NC. Cloie York scored 16 points hitting 5-of-10 from 3-point range.
- New Palestine has started 3-0. Jordan Reid tallied 20 first-half points and finished with 24 in the Dragons' Wednesday win over Greenwood. Leah Seib averaged 13.5 ppg on the week.
- Delta is 4-0 for the second straight year. Freshman Gracie Gilland averaged 16 points and five rebounds per game as the Eagles beat Alexandria, Hagerstown and Elwood last week.
- Mt. Vernon has a 2-1 mark after a 60-30 victory over Connersville last week. Sydnee Perry and Abby Worley scored 14 points each and Lexi Shelton added 10 for MV.
- Hannah Farrell has had a strong start for Greenfield-Central. She tallied 16 points and 10 rebounds in the Cougars' Saturday loss to Noblesville. Addie Hill totaled 12 points and 10 boards.
- In addition to the two conference games on the schedule this week, it's a busy week with five Tuesday games. Seven teams are in action Friday and five more Saturday.
- HHC teams are 14-6 against non-conference foes so far this season.

HHC MATCHUPS

Friday: Pendleton Hts. at Greenfield-Central

The defending HHC champion Arabians have taken a jump on conference play with close victories over New Castle and Yorktown to start 2-0. A key match-up awaits with G-C, which knocked off PH last year. It's the first conference game for new Cougars coach Bradley Key.

Saturday:

Delta at New Castle

The Eagles are off to their second straight 4-0 start, while New Castle had a close loss to Pendleton Heights to begin conference play. NC's Cameron Tabor was the conference's leading scorer a year ago. Tabor (20.0) and G-C's Hannah Farrell (15.3) are in the top three in the conference in scoring.

SOCCER REPORT

Oct. 1, 2018

PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

G: Alexi Hardie, Mt. Vernon & Elizabeth Reece, Yorktown

Hardie scored twice for the Marauders in their 3-0 HHC title-clinching win over Pendleton Heights. Reece tallied nine goals on the week, including five goals and five assists in the Tigers' 3-0 week.

B: Zack Bell, Greenfield-C & Trae Hassebroek, Shelbyville

Bell had two goals and an assist and helped the Cougars control their HHC title-clinching win over New Castle. Hassebroek took the HHC scoring lead with five goals and four assists in a 3-1 week.

NEWS AND NOTES

- Greenfield-Central clinched its first outright HHC boys title since 2000, and second straight title, with a 6-0 win over New Castle Thursday. Zack Bell scored twice and Tyler Murphy had a goal and an assist. Mt. Vernon finished second with a 6-1 mark.
- Pendleton Heights finished third in the HHC by going 2-0 in the final week. Ethan Schitter and Daniel Aker scored in a 2-1 win over Shelbyville Tuesday, then Mason Fridley scored in a 1-0 Thursday win over New Palestine. Ethan Hunt had both shutouts for PH.
- Shelbyville clinched a fourth-place finish by going 2-1 in the final week. Shelby beat Yorktown 5-1 Monday. Trae Hassebroek had three goals and two assists. Saturday, the Golden Bears beat Delta 6-0 as Josh Williams scored twice.
- Mt. Vernon won its third straight HHC girls title - and its second outright title in three years - with a 3-0 win over Pendleton Heights Monday. Alexi Hardie scored twice for MV and Jaici Wright made four saves for the shutout. PH finished in a three-way tie for second with Greenfield-Central and New Palestine.
- NP clinched a piece of second with a 6-0 win over Shelbyville. Victoria Crowder had three goals and an assist for the Dragons.
- Yorktown finished fifth, beating Delta 6-1 Tuesday behind Elizabeth Reece's two goals and three assists, and then beating Shelbyville 5-0 Saturday. Reece had three goals and two assists in that contest.
- Shelbyville played three HHC games in the week. The Bears Delta 5-3 in OT behind Hannah Murray's two goals and an assist.
- Sectional action begins this week, with HHC teams across several sites in Class 3A and 2A.
