Conference news & notes

- New Palestine finished off its fourth straight HHC title with a 13-0 victory over Delta on Friday night. The Dragons won the conference by two games over Pendleton Heights and Greenfield-Central.
- Sectional play begins this week in the HHC. Seven of the eight conference teams finished the season with winning overall records, and all eight teams had winning records in non-conference play. HHC teams went 100-31 in games against non-league foes this regular season.
- Several players had big weeks. Among them, Lauren Landes of Pendleton Heights, who was 7-13 with 7 RBI in 3 HHC games.
- HHC leaders in offensive categories: Hannah File of Shelbyville is the batting champion (.609) and stolen base leader (24). Ashley Prange of New Palestine leads in runs (45), RBI (48) and homers (17). In pitching categories, File leads in ERA (1.70), while New Palestine's Elisha Barker leads in wins (17) and strikeouts (76).
