Conference news & notes

- Boys: Last week saw four HHC games. The Bell changed hands as Pendleton Heights beat Mt. Vernon 2-1 on Thursday. Abe Bohlsen and Drew Daley scored for the Arabians. Jacob Knepper had the Marauders' second-half tally. MV has clinched a share of the HHC title and finishes conference play 6-1. Greenfield-Central gave itself a chance at a share of the title with two shutout wins - 4-0 over Shelbyville and 6-0 over Yorktown. G-C must win both games this week to share the title.
- Boys: The regular season's final week has Greenfield-Central visiting Delta Monday. On Tuesday, Pendleton Heights hosts Shelbyville. Thursday has two games - New Castle at Greenfield-Central and Pendleton Heights at New Palestine. Delta closes out the HHC season Saturday at Shelbyville.
- Girls: Mt. Vernon clinched at least a tie for the HHC title Saturday with a 13-0 victory over Delta, with Alexi Hardie tallying a goal and three assists. Pendleton Heights can clinch a tie with a win Monday at Mt. Vernon. New Palestine gave PH its first conference loss Wednesday with a 2-1 win behind Maddy Miller's goal and assist. Also last week, Greenfield-Central beat Shelbyville 7-1 behind two goals and three assists from Lucy Brand.
- Girls: This week is the final one of conference play. Monday sees Mt. Vernon travel to Pendleton Heights and Shelbyville travel to New Palestine, as well as Greenfield-Central at New Castle in a makeup game. Delta travels to Yorktown Tuesday. Saturday, Yorktown visits Shelbyville.
- Other notables: Shelbyville's Hannah Murray scored a hat trick against Rushville. MV's Alexi Hardie had three goals and five assists. PH's Shayla Meinders shut out Westfield. Boys notables include G-C's Zack Bell, with 2G/2A in 2 HHC wins, Skylor Stevenson of New Castle with two game-tying or winning goals.
