Conference news & notes

- The eight HHC schools opened play during the season's first week, with Mt. Vernon and Shelbyville each starting 2-0. New Castle and New Palestine also won their openers on the season.
- It's the final week before conference play begins for all teams on Dec. 8. Two teams – Delta and Pendleton Heights – will play three times this week.
- Mt. Vernon won two close games to start 2-0. Logan Smith had 16 points and nine boards. Cade Gentry added 15 and Damari Gatewood 12 in a 69-68 won over Whiteland. Gatewood had 17 points, Brandon Bell 15 and Smith 12 in a 77-73 win over Hamilton Heights.
- Zach Kuhn had a big performance Saturday for Shelbyville in a 69-63 win over Triton Central, scoring 36 points and grabbing nine boards. Brock Blackwell added 18 points. Sam Lewis had 22 points and Blackwell 18 in the Golden Bears' 59-48 season-opening win over Rushville.
- New Palestine won its opener 49-42 over Richmond behind 17 points from Maximus Gizzi. He scored nine in the fourth quarter as NP pulled away.
- Luke Bumbalough led four New Castle scorers in double-figures with 20 points, and Mason Gillis added 18 in a 79-41 win over Blue River.
- Among other notable performances: Bobby Smith had a strong game for Yorktown in its opener, scoring 13 points against Muncie Central. Matt Turner had 20 points and six boards for Greenfield-Central against Beech Grove. Eli Pancol led three Pendleton Heights players in double-figures with 16 points and nine boards against Anderson.

Player of the Week

Josh Williams, Shelbyville

The Golden Bears' point guard scored 10 points per game and also averaged 6.5 rebounds and 3.5 assists per game, setting the table for the Shelbyville offense to score 64 ppg in two wins.
