Conference news & notes

- One HHC champion will be decided Friday when New Palestine and Pendleton Heights meet at NP. Both teams are 5-1 in conference play. The Arabians are seeking their second straight title. The Dragons are seeking their first since 1993-94. Mt. Vernon and Greenfield-Central each have a chance at the title, as both have one loss. They each play a conference game this weekend – G-C hosts New Castle Friday, MV hosts Shelbyville Saturday. The Marauders and Cougars will meet Jan. 19.
- Yorktown has won its last two conference games, most recently beating Shelbyville 44-20 Saturday. Carley Culberson led the Tigers with 13 points and Lea Alexander had 10. The Tigers also beat New Castle Dec. 23 in the only other HHC game played the last three weeks.
- Delta and Yorktown are both playing for hardware this week, as they meet in the Delaware County Tournament. Each team plays in the semifinals Wednesday, with the championship game slated for Saturday.
- New Palestine has a showcase game this week, as the Dragons face Triton Central Saturday afternoon at the Indiana Farmers Coliseum.
