WEEK 4 GAMES

New Palestine at Mt. Vernon

One of two county rivalries this week matches up two teams who are 1-0 in the HHC. The annual Boundary Rail matchup marks the 51st season the two teams have played each other. Both have strong offenses - MV tallied 521 yards of offense last week, NP had 640 yards. This game matches up the HHC's leading passer, MV's Tyson Harley, against leading rusher Charlie Spegal of NP.

Delta at Yorktown

Two more longtime rivals meet up at Yorktown. Delta scored 84 points last week behind a rushing attack that averaged 15.6 yards per carry. Wesley Woodin has 176 yards on the year. Yorktown's Reid Neal has thrown for 544 yards and six TDs.

Pendleton Hts. at Greenfield-C.

The Arabians are 3-0 after a strong game last week. PH's Eli Pancol has caught nine passes this season and scored on six of them. He averages 25.1 ypc. G-C had its best offensive game of the season last week, with freshman QB Gehrig Slunaker throwing for 167 yards.

New Castle at Shelbyville

Two teams enter looking for their first conference victories. The Trojans bring their aerial attack led by QB Drew Barber, the league's second-leading passer, and top receiver Luke Bumbalough (18-321, 7 TDs). Veteran QB Landon Watson leads Shelbyville's offense, which tallied three TDs last week. Watson threw for 158 yards last week.
